RESTS WITH JAPAN

Whether or Not There is to be War.

A Prominent Indianapolis Man Sideloads—A Pittsburg Bank Closed.

OTHER NEWS BY WIRE

IT IS UP TO JAPAN.

London, Oct. 21—It is now up to Japan to say what she intends to do in the far East, and upon the decision of the government of the Mikado depends whether or not there will be war in Russia. The Russian government has taken the stand that she will maintain her position in the far east by force of arms if necessary, and shows by the reinforcements to both her military and naval forces that she means it.

Opinion among army and navy people here is divided as to whether or not Japan will take up the gage of battle. It is generally agreed that if Japan ever intends to fight Russia, and put to the test the question whether she is to be a world power and dominate the Asiatic mainland opposite her shores, she will find no better time. The fact that a fighting admiral has been put in command of the Japanese fleet is taken to be an indication that the mikado has determined to fight.

Diplomats here are plainly puzzled at the situation. It was confidently believed two weeks ago that a few days would tell the tale, whether it would be peace or war, but the tension seems to be as great as ever, and there is much doubt as to what the end will be.

SHOOTING OVER A WOMAN.

New Orleans, Oct. 21—Assistant City Attorney E. S. Whitaker, who was captain of volunteers in the Spanish-American war, was shot twice by Bartley Brown, a newspaper reporter, this afternoon. Neither wound is serious. Brown's sister had been Whitaker's stenographer and it is understood that she is the cause of the shooting, though neither side will talk.

LOOKS LIKE SUICIDE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 21—Samuel E. Morris, editor of The Sentinel, fell from a window here at 11 a. m. today and was instantly killed. He had been ill a long time and it looks like suicide as he had been in hard times and fought by his own party for some time. He was consul general under Cleveland.

A BANK CLOSED.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 21—The Federal national bank was closed this morning by the comptroller. It was supposed to be one of the strongest in the city. No statement has been issued yet.

PROMINENT KENTUCKIAN DEAD.

Williamsburg, Ky., Oct. 21—Dr. R. H. O'Hara, one of the wealthiest men in Grant county, and a bank president, etc., died this morning. Was a cousin of Theodore O'Hara.

WAITING FOR IRON—Work is still delayed at the government building addition by the failure of the expected iron work to arrive. The workmen have been awaiting it for six weeks now, and it has not yet come. The burning of the foundry at Owensboro had the contract for furnishing the material is mostly to blame for it.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY

Seems Certain From the Registration.

The Republican Vote Gains 707 Votes Over Last Year—Read a Winner.

BIG REGISTRATION YESTERDAY

Yesterday's supplementary registration gives nothing but encouragement to Republicans. The total was 535 Democrats, 396 Republicans and 67 miscellaneous, making a total of 4166 registered voters on both days. This gives the Republicans 1668 registered voters, as against 962 last year, a gain of 707 over last year. Yet last year the Democrats beat some of the Republican candidates by less than 100 votes. Thus with nearly 1,000 Democratic votes majority, the Republicans last year cut down the Democratic majority in the election to 100 in some instances. The Democrats now have only 632 majority this year and this will be easily cut down in the election.

It is very clear that the Republican ticket has a walk-over. Every year the Republicans cut down the Democratic majority several hundred. This year they will do it worse than ever, because the vote registered shows the interest taken in the election, and in addition because there is an independent ticket in the field which will take several hundred votes from the Democratic ticket. It will not take more than 100, at the most, from the Republican ticket, hence it cannot hurt the Republican ticket, but will help it.

Many Republicans have registered as Democrats or independents, and when the whole thing is footed up it is plain that the Republicans will win in a walk. They are gaining ground every day.

The following are the figures for the two days' registration this year:

Last year the total on the last registration day was 186 Republicans and 79 Democrats. The total registration last year was 3035. It is 1141 votes more this year than last, showing that there is something doing.

Last year, with the Democrats about 1,000 in the majority, Mr. J. A. James, now candidate for city jailer, was defeated by Mr. T. J. Evitts, the present Democratic nominee, by only 86 votes. Others were defeated by the Democrats by less than 500 votes, showing that the Republicans out down the Democratic majority between 900 and 500 votes every year.

of being discolored from having been exposed, whether that of a white man or negro cannot be determined.

The discovery was reported at Woodville and at other towns in that vicinity and the natural supposition is that some one had been run over by a train and had crawled off in the woods and bled to death. Following this theory the residents formed a party and began to search for the man's body but were not successful in their efforts.

This afternoon a telephone message stated that nothing had yet been learned of the owner of the severed member. It turned out to be the foot of a white man, and seemed to have been cut off no later than day before yesterday. No one in that section, so far as is known, is minus a foot.

MR. HARRISON TO BE APPOINTED—Mayor Yeiser will probably appoint to fill out the unexpired term of Prosecuting Attorney Jesse Gilbert, from now until January 1, Attorney Tom Harrison, the Democratic nominee for the office. No appointment has yet been made, however.

THIEF ALMOST FLEW

Mr. Baxter Mockbee Comes Near Getting Chicken Thief.

He Fired at Him After the Marauder Had Knocked a Plank Off.

BUT THE THIEF ESCAPED

Mr. Baxter Mockbee, of Bronson avenue, near 10th street, gave a chicken thief a fright last night, and will probably experience little trouble from such customers again.

Mr. Mockbee is a tinner employed by the Rhodes-Burford company, and had worked last night rather late. On reaching home he sat down to read his paper before retiring and heard some one in the back yard. He remarked to his wife that he believed a chicken thief was trying to get at his fowls and seeing his pistol went out to investigate. He saw a man trying to get in and waited for him to effect entrance. The thief knocked a board off the fence and entered the yard but no sooner had he set foot inside than Mr. Mockbee pulled down on him with his gun. The bullet missed the thief but struck the board not half a foot away, and the intruder made a hasty exit. Mr. Mockbee followed and saw the man running down the alley and took one more shot at him and it was here that the thief "took wings and flew."

The residents all over the city have been troubled of late by chicken thieves and this will probably act as a damper on them for a time. It is believed this was the same man who has been stealing chickens all over town.

Owing to the darkness Mr. Mockbee could not tell whether the man was black or white.

IS STILL IN DOUBT

Court Gives $2,500 For Reg. Duvall's Death.

It Fails to Settle the Question of Administrator of the Estate.

A COUNTER DECISION

The question of title to administration on the estate of Reginald Duvall of Paducah, the engineer killed in a Southern wreck in Indiana in August, 1902, remains unsettled and the right to receive $2,500 awarded as damages for his death is also undetermined according to yesterday's Louisville Times. The Crawford circuit court at English, Ind., awarded a verdict of $2,500 to the administrator of Reginald Duvall's estate, but left unsettled the question of who was the administrator, whether Flora D. Duvall, claiming as widow, or Mrs. M. E. Duvall, mother of the dead man.

At the same time that the above verdict was rendered at English the Dubois circuit court at Jasper, Ind., held that Flora D. Duvall was the widow and established her right to administration on the estate.

In the federal court at Louisville Mrs. M. E. Duvall of Paducah, filed a suit some time ago asking an injunction to prevent Flora D. Duvall from acting as administratrix and at the same time asking damages for the death of her son. The deposition of Flora D. Duvall, taken in connection with this case, was used in the suit at Jasper, where she was held to be the widow.

Mrs. Flora Duvall testified in the case at English that she was married to Reginald Duvall August 19, 1902, in the office of Turner Wilson, a Louisville lawyer, by a minister named Hurzian.

Turner Wilson denied her story, but admitted that he had given Flora Duvall a note in which he vouched for her marriage to Reginald Duvall, "just to satisfy the mother for a time."

ALLEGED FORGER

NEGRO ARRESTED AT FULTON BROUGHT IN TODAY.

Marshals Robertson and Walker, of Fulton, arrived today at noon with John Rhodes, colored, who is wanted here for breaking into an Illinois Central caboose and also in connection with a forgery perpetrated on Bud Quarles last winter, when a negro passed a forged check on him, the check bearing Rhodes' endorsement.

Rhodes was arrested in Fulton last night and as the former crime was alleged to have been committed in this county, was brought here. He will be given a preliminary hearing before Judge Sanders tomorrow or Friday morning for both charges.

TO THE VOTERS OF PADUCAH.

I have been selected by the Republican party as its nominee for councilman from the Third ward and realizing the great responsibilities of the office want to tell you what I shall do if called to it.

I am for honesty first, and progress next. I shall vote to clean the city of filth, and to have the work done by our own workmen; vote to enforce every law, and to do away with vice and disorder; vote to give men power who are not afraid to enforce the laws; for men who will turn the wheels of progress; for men who are not tied to any man or set of men; vote to lift one city out of the mire of filth and corruption; to make of it one of which we can all be proud—one to which travelers will point as a progressive, clean, up-to-date town, and not refer to as is the case now.

This is my platform, and I solicit the vote of every voter regardless of party—of every man who wants a good, clean, progressive, honest administration. Yours very truly,

WM. SHORT.

MOURNING STAMPS

The Latest Fad to Have Somber Postage.

Receiving the Attention of the Post office Department.

It is probable the post office department will take up the matter of providing a stamp of somber hue for use by persons in mourning, owing to the numerous demands that are made for these stamps at the various post offices over the country. Requests for such stamps are quite frequent and when informed that there are no such stamps issued, the would-be purchaser invariably suggests that the government ought to provide such stamps so that they would be in consonance with the do so by paying an additional cent. The department may take up this suggestion and act on it later.

ly in receipt of requests for the issue of a mourning stamp for use on black edge stationery. Persons in all grades of life assert that there is no harmony or appropriateness in an envelope with a black edge and a red stamp. The department has given much consideration to the subject, but has been unable to comply with the request in accordance of the rules of the Universal Postal union which prescribes that our lowest value of stamp shall be green; that the stamp used for domestic use shall be red, and the stamp carrying foreign mail—five cent—shall be blue. In view of all these restrictions, it has not appeared possible to meet the requirements for a mourning stamp, as the department does not deem it advisable to print a stamp in red and also in black. However, the suggestion has been made that the three cent stamp now printed in purple might be issued in black, so that persons desiring to use a black stamp upon their mourning envelope might carry the stamp in black. The department may take up this suggestion and act on it later.

THE MASTER AND HIS SCHOLAR.

Find the Other Pupil.

As a Schoolmaster was walking upon the bank of a river not far from his School, he heard a cry as of some one in distress. Running to the side of the river, he saw one of his Scholars in the water, hanging by the bough of a willow. The Boy, it seems, had been learning to swim with corks, and, fancying that he could do without them, had thrown them aside. The force of the stream carried him out of his depth; and he would certainly have drowned, had not the friendly branch of the willow hung in his way. The Master took up the corks, which were lying upon the bank, and threw them to his Scholar. "Let this be a warning to you," said he, "and in your future life never throw away your corks until you are quite sure you have strength and experience enough to swim without them."

Crockett Childress Dies at the Home of Dr. Tom Moss.

Was Shot in the Race War at Kevil Sunday a Week Ago By Tom Hall.

WAS A POPULAR YOUTH

Crockett Childress, the youth shot by Tom Hall, colored, in the Kevil race war Sunday night a week ago, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of Dr. Tom Moss, where he was taken after the shooting. He was shot in the breast near the heart and his life was despaired of from the first. He lingered until yesterday when he began to sink, and relatives were summoned.

The deceased was one of the most popular young men in that section. He was son of Mr. P. G. Childress and leaves three brothers. He was a nephew of Coroner Wm. Peal of Paducah.

The young man, it will be remembered, was shot by some negro in a crowd that became engaged in a quarrel with white people on the depot platform. The altercation terminated in a fight and it is claimed Tom Hall shot young Childress. Hall was captured and when taken to Wokliffe several days later lynched by men supposed to be friends of young Childress.

DAILY AVERAGE, 2192.

Personally appeared before me this day E. J. Paxton, general manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of Sept., 1903, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

PETER PURYEAR,
Notary Public McCracken County.

ELECTION OF 1899: W. S. TAYLOR, 193,714 WM. GOEBEL, 191,831 JOHN YOUNG BROWN, 12,140.

DAILY THOUGHT.

It is a good thing to think; it is a better thing to work. It is a better thing to do good.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Thursday with warmer Thursday.

THINGS TO REMEMBER.

Tax rate for the first year of Mayor Yeiser's present term.	1.85
Tax rate for the second year of Mayor Yeiser's present term.	1.65
Amount of taxes raised the first year on an assessed valuation of $8,096,830, 149,791.35
Amount raised the second year, on assessed valuation of $8,911,490, 147,039.58
Total amount of taxes raised in the two years, 296,830.93
Revenue from licensees, etc., (estimated) 50,000.00
Total money at disposal of administration during the two years, 346,830.93

What have the people of Paducah to show for the expenditure of this amount of money during the past two years?

Do the people of Paducah want the same thing to occur during the next two, or four years?

If they do not, let them vote the Republican ticket in November.

THE WAY TO GET AT IT.

It is reported that the mayor and board of police commissioners are to investigate the charges of wholesale gambling in Paducah, in order to prove that they and the police did not know what was going on. The public will doubtless readily admit that they did not know what was going on. The public is ready to concede that Mayor Yeiser and the commissioners do not know of a single place where gambling has been going on, or of a single saloon that has been open in violation of law. The public is ready to admit that the police did not know of it. In fact, the public is ready to grant that the whole city hall crowd is blind; and it is for this reason, among others, that they want them laid on the shelf. A progressive city has no place for blind men. The point that is made and has always been made is that the public officials did not try to see these things; there are none so blind as those who will not see.

STILL UNANSWERED.

Great things were expected of Governor Beckham when he made his speech at Mayfield Monday, but only great disappointment resulted. It has been charged, and is still charged, that citizens of Mayfield contributed $800 to the Democratic campaign fund in consideration for the pardoning of Sam Clark, convicted of killing Mr. S. R. Carney, then a resident of Paducah. Clark was paroled, thus securing his freedom, but has never been pardoned. This seems to have been the rock on which those who put up the cash and the Democratic administration split. Those who paid their good money for a pardon wanted a pardon, and not a parole, hence the scandal.

Governor Beckham's denial is simply that he didn't promise to pardon Clark for political reasons. He certainly has not pardoned him at all. In the absence of any proof that he did make any promise to pardon Clark if $800 were paid into the campaign fund, grant that he didn't. This does not disprove the charge that it was understood by those who made up the $800, from representations made by those professing to have authority to make the contract, that Clark was to be pardoned. The whole thing was a Democratic agreement, and Democrats were for a state of affairs, a convict to obtain his money consideration. Beckham, at the most, only himself. If Governor Beckham did, what Democrats did?

J. C. Speight, who made the Clark pardon material to possess documents of importance on the case, which produce at the proper time, since Governor Beckham's death, this additional statement:

I have never stated that I could any fact connected with the Clark pardon by S. A. Norman. He was a close personal friend and I was not disposed to have him for any purpose any efforts or aids he may have employed to secure the release of his friend.

But since the governor and his friends have seen fit to force Mr. Norman into this matter, I do state as a fact that he (Norman) paid $100 into the Democratic campaign fund of 1900 with the expectation and understanding from parties claiming to represent the governor that he would pardon Clark.

I further state as a fact that when the governor was a candidate in the primary for the nomination for governor, he, while in Mayfield this year, had a conversation with Mr. Norman and claimed his support for the reason that he (the governor) had secured the release of Clark. And I call on the governor to deny that he had at the time and place mentioned substantially the conversation as above stated. I furthermore call on Mr. Norman to deny, if it is not true, the statement that he paid $100 in the Democratic campaign fund upon the conditions as above stated.

MR. READ A WINNER.

It should now be plain to every citizen of Paducah that Mr. Jeff J. Read, the Republican nominee for mayor, and the entire Republican ticket, will win easily in November. While the Democratic registration shows a few hundred more votes for Democrats than Republicans, it does not signify that the voters will vote the Democratic ticket, or that the Republicans are beaten, for the Republicans always count down the Democratic majority several hundred votes, as shown in every election, and this year many Democrats are going to vote the independent ticket, and some are going to stay at home.

Every voter in Paducah should vote for Mr. Read. All good citizens should get in the band wagon and join the procession, for if they do not, they will be sorry when they see what a rousing victory Mr. Read will have. Mr. Read is a young and progressive man. He will give Paducah an economic but clean and progressive administration. Mr. Read is a young man just entering politics. He is well educated, intelligent and energetic, with the progressive ideas of a modern young man. He will give Paducah an administration of which he, his party and the people will be proud.

A young man like Mr. Read, with a future before him—a young man of standing, esteemed by everybody, and with a long life before him to be affected by his record as mayor—he cannot do anything else, if he would, but give the people a progressive, decent administration which will be a credit to him and a reproach to his predecessors.

The way to win for Mr. Read and defeat the present clique is to go to the polls and vote the Republican ticket. He is the man we want and is the man who is going to be elected. Every man in favor of a better and more progressive city should vote for Mr. Read. A vote for anyone else is a vote thrown away.

THE SAME OLD DODGE.

The Republicans of Paducah do not desire any Republican not entitled to vote to register, and the attempts of the Democratic press to create the impression that there is any desire to do anything unfair or illegal by Republicans in Paducah is only another campaign scheme. As The Sun stated some time ago, the Republicans want fair elections and a free ballot, and desire no unfair advantage over their opponents.

The claim that men have illegally registered is false on its face. If city officials know of 35 men, more or less, who have registered illegally, why don't they arrest them? The Democrats, especially the city hall crowd, have taken particular pains to keep Republicans from registering not entitled to register, and probably a few who were entitled to register. They have had police officers at some of the polls on registration day to hally voters, with the evident purpose of intimidating them into not registering.

If they really thought there was any desire on the part of voters to register illegally, it would be much more to their purpose to allow such men to register and then arrest and jail them for it. But that is not their game. They want to keep every Republican voter possible from registering and voting and to do it they have had at some of the polls, at least, officers to force men to make affidavit and otherwise embarrass and intimidate them when there was no excuse for it.

Now the Democrats are trying to claim that "wholesale registration frauds are attempted for the purpose of carrying Paducah by the Republicans," and that the names of 35 or more voters illegally registered are in possession of officers, hoping thus to keep Republican voters from the polls. If they are, arrest them and put them in jail, Mr. Democrat. The Republicans want no registration frauds.

MR. MAYOR, SHOW YOUR HAND

It has been claimed for months past that the Yeiser administration had the endorsement of the saloons and liquor men. It was so asserted when Mayor Yeiser and Colonel Joe Potter were fighting for the Democratic nomination. The saloon men openly fought Mr. Potter. Why? The Sun does not undertake to say, but it is generally reported and understood that Mayor Yeiser has the endorsement of the saloon men, and if he has, there must be some reason for their endorsing him, just as there was a reason for their united opposition to Colonel Potter.

If he is not the saloon candidate, he owes it to himself and to the saloon men to say so. If he is not endorsed by the saloons, he ought to disabuse the minds of the people of the belief that he is. If he is, he should have the courage to let the people know where he stands. We want him to show his hand.

And for the purpose of having him show his hand, we repeat that it is reported that Sabbath violators and gamblers are for Mayor Yeiser. That the whiskey element is strong for him. Is this true, Mr. Mayor?

Have you, Mr. Mayor, directly or indirectly, yourself or through those professing to represent you, made, as is currently reported, any promises to whiskey men or their representatives?

If you have not, say so. Thousands of people in Paducah will read this and want to know where you stand. We call on you to show them. You are a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people of Paducah. No matter what their individual sentiments in these matters may be the people have a right to know where you stand.

ASK YOURSELF.

Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw, who is speaking for the Republican ticket in Kentucky, has devoted himself principally to national issues. He has referred only indirectly to the conditions that prevail in Kentucky, but did say at Lexington, that somehow it seemed to him that the people of Kentucky were not getting their share of the good things of this country.

"You have the land," said Mr. Shaw, "you have the climate, you have the people, you have the blood, you have the history, you have all, but give you have been getting your share of what these things should bring? I don't know. Look about you at the other states. Ask yourselves."

The same thing is largely true of Paducah. We have everything to make Paducah the best city in the state outside of Louisville, but somehow we have not made the progress possible. The citizens of Paducah know who has been holding office here for many years, with the exception of the two years of progressive administration they had under a Republican council which built the sanitary sewerage and made other public improvements. If you want to know why the Democratic officials in past years have given Paducah so little, you should do as Secretary Shaw says, "Ask yourselves."

Former Governor Bradley's many friends throughout the state regret the attack of illness which has made it impossible for him to take the stump for the Republican ticket. Governor Bradley would have doubtless done effective work for the ticket, and it is hoped may yet sufficiently recover to make a few speeches.

Dowle went to New York to conquer the city, but Gotham has the better of it thus far. The healer has had nothing but trouble since he arrived, and is finding the metropolis a tough proposition.

Mr. Pete Seay, an attorney of Mayfield, was in the city today en route to Maxon Mills to appear in a case in a magistrate's court.

KILLING AT MAYFIELD

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 21—John Hobson yesterday shot and killed Ira Holmes, colored, on Hobson's farm near Sedalia. Hobson shot twice, both balls taking effect within an inch of each other over the right eye and produced instant death. Hobson immediately came to the city and gave himself up to Judge Webb and was released upon a bond of $2,000. He claims self-defense.

Monday morning the negro, who was a cropper on Hobson's farm, wanted some rails to build a corn pen and Hobson told him to go to a certain place in the woods where some rails were stacked and get what were needed. The negro replied he was going to get them off the fence to which Hobson objected. The conversation became hotter when the negro jerked a wagon standard and threatened to kill Hobson. Hobson turned and went to the house.

Yesterday the negro came to the field where Hobson and two negroes were at work and attempted to pull a gun when Hobson shot him.

THE SAME OLD CROWD.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 21—Ed Callahan and William Spencer were nominated Saturday night by the Democrats of Breathitt county for re-election to the offices of sheriff and jailer. They were the Democratic nominees for these offices two years ago, but the election was contested by the Republicans, through James B. Marcus, for whose master Curtis Jett and Tom White were convicted. Such gross frauds were proven against both sides that the courts decided that no election was held for these two offices.

If you have not, say so. Thousands of people in Paducah will read this and want to know where you stand. We call on you to show them. You are a candidate for the highest office in the gift of the people of Paducah. No matter what their individual sentiments in these matters may be the people have a right to know where you stand.

DIED OF YELLOW FEVER.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 21—Preston L. Fetter, formerly of this city, a member of one of the largest and most prominent families in Warren county, died today at Monterey, Mexico, of yellow fever. He had been there four years and was agent of the Mexican Pacific railway company at that place. His wife and children only recently left Monterey to visit Mrs. Fetter's former home at Sedalia, Mo.

The burial is bound to take place in Mexico, as the laws forbid the removal of the corpse of a person who dies of a contagious disease.

TRIPLE WEDDING IN GRAVES.

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 21—Tuesday morning at 8 a. m. November 3 at St. Jerome church, at Fancy Farm, there will be a triple wedding, Rev. Charles Haesley officiating.

Mr. Hayden, son of Mr. Richard Hayden, and Miss Vivian Carrico, daughter of Mrs. Josephine Carrico; Enos Crutsinger, son of Mr. Gregory Crutsinger, and Miss Lula Stinson; Lawrence Ellegood, son of Mr. Sam Ellegood, and Miss Hobbs, the daughter of Martin Hobbs, deceased.

A MAYORALTY CONTEST.

Bowling Green, Ky., Oct. 21—A mandamus suit has been filed to require the county clerk to place the name of Esquire E. H. Porter under the Democratic device, instead of George T. Wilson, the party nominee for mayor. The primary in which Mr. Wilson secured the nomination was held September 29. It will be alleged in the mandamus suit the proper notices of the primary were not posted.

ELOPED AND WED.

Mayfield, Ky., Oct. 21—Sunday morning Mr. Roll Wyatt and his daughter

Miss Onie, went to Oak Grove church. After services Mr. Wyatt started for his conveyance and told Miss Onie to be ready.

While Mr. Wyatt was gone after the team Mr. Terry Stewart drove up and the young lady neglected to wait but left with Mr. Stewart to Tennessee where they were married.

MARRIED AT MAYFIELD.

EASY ENOUGH.

TO SHAKE OFF COFFEE AND SICKNESS.

It is easy to shake off coffee no matter how bad one may crave it, when well made Postum Coffee is served in its place.

"I have drank coffee for years and always experienced trouble from it," says a Kansan. "I knew it was causing my sickness as my doctor told me it was, and following the doctor's advice I have repeatedly sworn off. But after a short time I could not stand it any longer and would go back to coffee and the old troubles. Never till I tried Postum about a year ago could I shut off the coffee for any length of time.

"At that time I was suffering terribly from stomach trouble, nervousness, headaches and all the other ills that go with a badly upset stomach. I am a school teacher and if I made my coffee strong enough to stimulate my stomach I could work fine for a time but would collapse at night. Gradually I failed to get stimulation from the coffee and my brain seemed actually clogged up from drinking coffee and my stomach was in a wretched state.

"A friend came to see me and advised that I try Postum and then went out and got me a package, she was so certain it would help me. But my landlady did not make it right and I was so disappointed with the taste that I went back to coffee. My health finally got so bad I was on the point of giving up school work. Then my friend returned to see me one day and asked about the Postum and when she found out what the trouble was she made it for me according to directions, boiling it full 15 minutes, and to my surprise I found it delicious.

"Then I shut off the coffee and found it easy to do by drinking Postum in its place which completely satisfied any coffee taste and I began to feel better almost immediately. I have used Postum ever since and my stomach has not given me any more trouble. I am now strong again my nerves are steady and normal and I feel so fine cannot begin to tell you how thankful am.

"I persuaded my brother who was an inveterate coffee drinker for years to give up the coffee and try Postum and he has had such grand results from this that he says he will never go back to coffee. When I went home on a visit to my parents I persuaded them to use Postum in the place of coffee and the results have been that mother's nervousness and sleeplessness have disappeared." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ALICE of OLD VINCENNES

By MAURICE THOMPSON

Copyright, 1908, by the BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY

"The Indian, Long Hair, whom I sent upon Lieutenant Beverley's trail, reported to me this afternoon that his pursuit had been quite successful. He caught his game."

Alice's voice came to her now. She drew in a quivering breath of relief.

"Then he is here—he is—You have him a prisoner again?"

"A part of him, Miss Bonnison. Enough to be quite sure that there is one traitor who will trouble his king no more. Mr. Long Hair brought in the lieutenant's scalp."

Alice received this horrible statement in silence, but her face blanched and she stood as if frozen by the shock. The shifty moon glimmered and the yellow glow of the lamp showed Hamilton to what an extent his devilish cruelty hurt her, and somehow it chilled him as if by reflection, but he could not forego another thrust.

"He deserved hanging, and would have got it had he been brought to me alive. So, after all, you should be satisfied. He escaped my vengeance and Long Hair got his pay. You see, I am the chief sufferer."

These words, however, fell without effect upon the girl's ears, in which was booming the awful, stormlike roar of her excitement. She did not see her persecutor standing there. Her vision, unhampered by walls and distance, went straight away to a place in the wilderness where, all mangled and disfigured, Beverley lay dead. A low cry broke from her lips. She dropped the heavy swivel balls, and then, like a bird, swiftly, with a rustling swoop, she went past Hamilton and down the stairs.

For perhaps a full minute the man stood there motionless, stupefied, amazed, and when at length he recovered himself it was with difficulty that he followed her. Everything seemed to hinder him. When he reached the open air, however, he quickly regained his activity of both mind and body and looked in all directions. The clouds were breaking into parallel masses with streaks of sky between. The moon hung aghast against the blue peeped forth just in time to show him a flying figure which, even while he looked, reached the postern, opened it and slipped through.

With but a breath of hesitation between giving the alarm and following Alice silently and alone he chose the latter. He was a swift runner and light footed. With a few bounds he reached the little gate, which was still oscillating on its hinges, darted through and away, straining every muscle in desperate pursuit, gaining rapidly in the race, which bore eastward along the course twice before chosen by Alice in leaving the stockade.

CHAPTER XVII.

A MARCH THROUGH COLD WATER.

ON the 5th day of February, 1779, Colonel George Rogers Clark led an army across the Kaskaskia river and camped. This was the first step in his march toward the Wabash. An army! No not smile. Fewer than 200 men, it is true, answered the roll call when Father Gibault lifted the cross and blessed them.

It was an army, small indeed, but yet an army, even though so rudely equipped that, could we now see it before us, we might wonder of what use it could possibly be in a military way.

Clark knew when he set out on his march to Vincennes that he was not indulging a visionary impulse. The enterprise was one that called for all that manhood could endure, but not more. With the genius of a born leader he measured his task by his means. He knew his own courage and fortitude and understood the best capacity of his men. He had genius—that is he possessed the secret of extracting from himself and from his followers the last refinement of devotion to purpose. There was a certainty, from first to last, that effort would not flag at any point short of the topmost possible strain.

The march before them lay over a magnificent plain, mostly prairie, rich in the drifts of the Nile, but extremely difficult to traverse. The distance, as the route led, was about 170 miles. On account of an open and rainy winter all the basins and flat lands were inundated, often presenting leagues of water ranging in depth from a few inches to three or four feet. Colonel Clark understood perfectly the strategic importance of Vincennes as a post commanding the Wabash and as a base of communication with the many Indian tribes north of the Ohio and east of the Mississippi. Francis Vigo (may his name never fade!) had brought him a comprehensive and accurate report of Hamilton's strength and the condition of the fort and garrison. This information confirmed his belief that it would be possible not only to capture Vincennes, but Detroit as well.

Just seven days after the march began the little army encamped for a night's rest at the edge of a wood, and here, just after nightfall, when the fires were burning merrily and the smell of broiling buffalo steaks burdened the damp air, a wizened old man suddenly appeared, how o'er whom where nobody had observed. He was dirty and in every way disreputable in appearance, looking like an aimless tramp, bearing a long rifle on his shoulder and walking with the somewhat halting activity of a very old yet vivacious and energetic simian. Of course it was Uncle Jazon, "Uncle Jazon sul generis," as Father Beret had dubbed him.

"Well, here I am!" he cried, approaching the fire by which Colonel Clark and some of his officers were cooking supper. "But ye can't guess a mile o' who I am to save yer livers an' lights."

He danced a few stiff steps, which made the water gush out of his tattered moccasins, then doffed his nondescript cap and nodded his scalpskin head in salutation to the commander.

Clark looked inquiringly at him, while the old fellow grimaced and rubbed his shrunken chin.

"I smell yer fat n-fryin' sompin' like a mile away, an' it set my inards to grumblin' for a snack, so I jes' thought I'd drop in on ye an' chaw witties wi' ye."

"Your looks are decidedly against you," remarked the colonel, with a dry smile. He had recognized Uncle Jazon after a little sharp scrutiny. "I suppose, however, that we can let you know the bones after we've got off the meat."

"Thank 'ee, thank 'ee, plenty good. A feller 't's as hungry as I am kin go through a bone like a fresh through water."

Clark laughed and said:

"I don't see any teeth that you have worth mentioning, but your gums may be unusually sharp."

"Ya-a-a, 'bout as sharp as yer wit, Colonel Clark, an' sharper 'n yer eyes, a long shot. Ye don't know me, do ye? Take another squirt at me, an' see if ye kin 'member a good lookin' man!"

"You have somewhat the appearance of an old scamp of the name of Jazon that formerly浪ed around with a worthless gun on his shoulder, and used to run from every Indian he saw down yonder in Kentucky." Clark held out his hand and added cordially:

"How are you, Jazon, my old friend, and where upon earth have you come from?"

Uncle Jazon pounced upon the hand and gripped it in his own knotted fingers, gazing delightedly up into Clark's bronzed and laughing face.

"Where'd I come from? I come from ever'where. First time I ever got lost in all my born days. I've been a trampin' round in the winter scenes like a week, crazy as a plucked rat, not a knowin' north from south nor my big toe from a turnip! Who's got some tobacco?"

Uncle Jazon's story, when presently he told it, interested Clark deeply.

He and Kenton had, with wise judgment, separated on escaping from the Indian camp, Kenton striking out for Kentucky, while Uncle Jazon went toward Kaskaskia.

The information that Beverley would be shot as soon as he was returned to Hamilton caused Colonel Clark serious worry of mind. Not only the fact that Beverley, who had been a charming friend and a most gallant officer, was now in such imminent danger, but the impression (given by Uncle Jazon's account) that he had broken his parole was deeply painful to the brave and scrupulously honorabile commander. Still friendship rose above regret, and Clark resolved to push his little column forward all the more rapidly, hoping to arrive in time to prevent the impending execution.

Next morning the march was resumed at the break of dawn, but a swollen stream caused some hours of delay, during which Beverley himself arrived from the rear, a haggard and weirdly unkempt apparition. He had been for three days following hard on the ar-

James Walbert camp held a meeting last night at the city hall to hear reports of the reunion last week. A complete report could not be made, because all bills have not been presented for payment.

There has been collected $850.75, while the total cost was about $900. Only $450.75 has been paid out thus far, showing that there are many bills yet in. All the subscriptions have been paid but about $6.50.

The reunion was reported a great success. There were about 650 badges given out, which represented about 550 strangers and 100 local veterans. Everybody enjoyed the two days, and went home pleased with Paducah hospitality.

Before adjournment the veterans adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the thanks of J. T. Walbert camp, No. 463, U. C. V., are due and hereby extend to the Paducah City railway company for free transportation to the Confederate veterans during the reunion on the 15th and 16th of October, and for the electric lights at the fair grounds. To Dr. S. B. Caldwell for the free use of the fair grounds for the reunion. To the Paducah water company for water furnished at the grounds. To Mr. George O. Wallace, J. R. Coleman, Sanders Fowler, Gns G. Singleton and W. A. Wickliffe for their valuable services which contributed so greatly to the success of the reunion. To those who kindly proposed to open their homes and entertain and sleep the soldiers on the night of the 15th. To company I of the Third Kentucky regiment of state militia for the valuable assistance rendered during the gathering. To the Daughters of the Confederacy for the untiring efforts in contributing to the pleasure and enjoyment of our guests. To the Sons of Confederate veterans for their assistance also. The Rhodes-Burford and company for tables and chairs, to Riegelsberger for lumber, to the newspapers of the city for the advertising they have so liberally given for the reunion, to the East Tennessee Telephone company for free telephone, to R. H. Nohle for the free use of wagon and team during the three days, and to all citizens who so liberally responded to our appeals and contributed to the success of the reunion.

tion was taken this morning and an interesting suit settled.

This was the suit brought by Attorneys Lightfoot and Yonts for Mr. Richard Calissi against the city of Paducah and board of health for damage for quarantining his house last winter when his daughter was ill of a disease that had been pronounced small pox by the health officer, but which other doctors had pronounced navel rash.

Attorney Campbell Flomney represented Dr. Robertson, president of the board of health, and Attorney Mark Werten appeared for the city. The demurrer of the attorneys for the defense was sustained and the suit thrown out of court.

Judge Husband, in his decision, held that the individual members of the board of health were not liable for any results coming from acts in which they were performing their duty, and that the city was not responsible in any measure for damages incurred as a result of the quarantine.

The case of F. G. Rudolph against Wilson, was dismissed.

Court was adjourned at noon and only half day sessions are being held.
